

Hort Constructions is a leading supplier of quality Project delivery for the Mining and Infrastructure Industries. Hort Constructions is a Project Management and construction company who have extensive experience in Project management, delivery and administration in the mining & industrial construction sectors. Hort Constructions mostly deals with specialised structural, mechanical and piping (SMP) construction projects within the mining sector.

Hort Constructions is an Australian owned company located in Orange NSW that primarily services the East Coast. Hort Constructions is driven by the desire to provide the successful delivery of projects in SMP & infrastructure construction on time and within budget.

Top management is committed to a high level of quality of product and services for its customers, provide safe working Environments to its employee, contractors, and other stake holders. The management is committed to prevent pollution and sustainable management of the environment. The company is aware about its responsibility for climate change and take all possible steps to achieve Net Zero.

Hort Constructions integrated management system meets the requirements of international standards ISO9001 for Quality; ISO14001 for Environment and ISO45001 for Health and safety respectively. Leadership is committed for continual improvement of its systems and processes. Leadership is committed in meeting and exceeding their stakeholders' expectations in all its legal and other obligations about its service, safety and the environment. The company objectives and targets are established and reviewed on a regular basis to improve its quality, safety, and environmental performance. The company objectives are in harmony with the strategic direction of the business based on sound risk management principles. Hort Constructions is against modern slavery and discourage use of slave workforce in any form or shape.

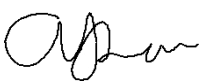

Hort Constructions operating environment and workplace will be subject to inspection and review to ensure that both human and physical factors are being reviewed for safe working environment. Leadership is committed to a safe healthy workplace free of hazards and uncontrolled risk, prevention of pollution. Management will review and monitor the workplace to ensure that physical, psychological and social and environmental factors are taken into consideration.

Management is committed to actively encouraging workplace consultation, awareness and communication of work, health and safety & environmental requirements to all its stakeholders both internal and external. Changes will be risk assessed in accordance with its management system. Hort management system is designed to meet the demands of sustainable business practice and best management principles.

The company actively encourages its staff to report all customer issues, near misses and incidents through its risk management system. All incidents and issues are investigated and reviewed for any improvement to its risk controls by top management.

This policy will be communicated to our interested parties and be publicly available on its website.

Top management is committed to a high level of quality of product and services for its customers, provide safe working Environments to its employee, contractors, and other stake holders. The management is committed to prevent pollution and sustainable management of the environment. The company is aware of its responsibility for climate change and take all possible steps to achieve Net Zero.

Adam Sara
General Manager

August 2026